Trial Date: December 12, 2012

1 tabs that used to exist on that page. It may have been in 2008, but Plaintiff can't recall exactly
 2 when. She does not recall reading the Terms of use, the Privacy Policy, or the Principles.

 4
 5 INTERROGATORY NO. 2:

6 DESCRIBE the circumstances under which YOU have "Liked" any content (including,
 7 without limitation, a product, service, website, brand, organization, celebrity, musician, band,
 8 event, Facebook Page, or other content) on Facebook.com including, with respect to each piece
 9 of content "Liked," the date(s) YOU "Liked" the content, a description of the content "Liked,"
 10 whether YOU "Liked" the content through FACEBOOK's website or a third-party website, and
 11 all the reason(s) YOU "Liked" the content, including whether you "Liked" the content in order
 12 to inform your FACEBOOK Friends that you liked the content.

13
 14 RESPONSE TO INTERROGATORY NO. 2:

15 Plaintiff objects to this Interrogatory as compound and consisting of at least five
 16 subparts. Plaintiff objects to the lack of a time frame on grounds of relevance and undue 17 burden. Plaintiff also objects to the Interrogatory as overbroad and unduly burdensome.
 18 Subject to those objections and the General Objections, Plaintiff responds as follows:

19
 20 Plaintiff uses the Facebook "Like" button frequently. Plaintiff's reasons fall into one of
 21 the following general categories: For self-promotion for her business, to promote a client's
 22 business, to promote a cause, and for affinity. A list of the specific items she "liked" on 23 Facebook, arranged by category, is attached as Exhibit 1 hereto. The times listed for each is 24 not possible for Plaintiff to recall, or to reasonably discern from information available to her.

25
 26 INTERROGATORY NO. 3:

27 DESCRIBE the PRIVACY SETTINGS in place for YOUR Facebook.com account(s)
 28

2011, or will be produced by December 19, 2011. All such shared content was for the purpose of promoting Plaintiff's business interests.

INTERROGATORY NO. 14:

Describe all COMMUNICATIONS YOU have had with any of YOUR "Friends" on Facebook regarding the display of YOUR NAME, LIKENESS, and/or profile picture in connection with a Sponsored Story.

RESPONSE TO INTERROGATORY NO. 14:

Plaintiff objects to this Interrogatory as vague and ambiguous in that it is not clear whether the "communication" is to have been made "on" Facebook, or if " "Friends" on Facebook" is meant to describe persons who have the status of "Friend" on Facebook. Subject to those objections and the General Objections, Plaintiff responds as follows: Plaintiff had the following communications with persons who are her "Facebook friends": Plaintiff had no such discussions, apart from with Counsel in this matter and with her spouse; the initial response to this Interrogatory interpreted the question more broadly than "Facebook" friends, and Plaintiff has had no discussions with "Facebook" friends regarding the display of her NAME, LIKENESS, and/or profile picture in connection with a Sponsored Story.
